

HSBC Access

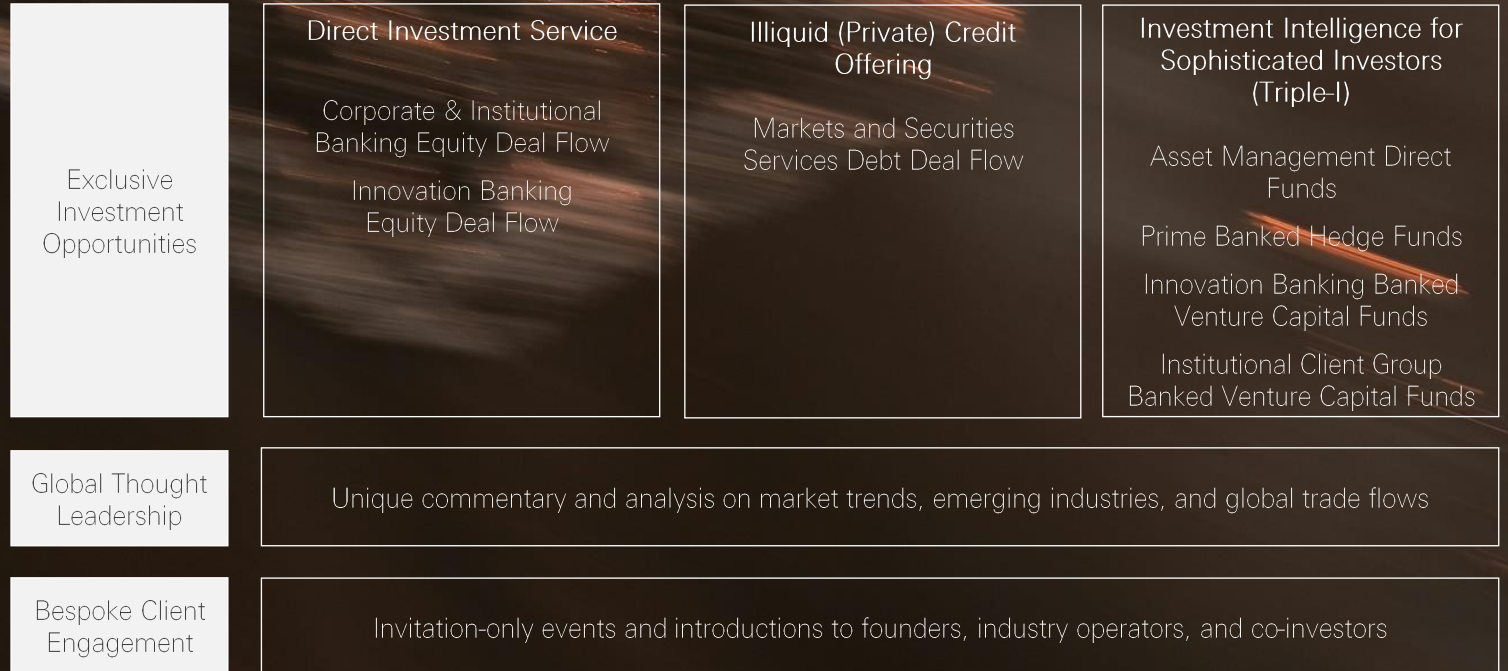

HSBC Access is only available to clients in Hong Kong¹

We unlock a world of opportunities that exist beyond the traditional private banking landscape. This is more than just deal flow. It is a curated ecosystem that enables diversification on a global scale.

Leveraging our unique position as one of the world's leading corporate, trade and innovation banks with deep integration across global corridors, we act as a connector of capital, insight and opportunity.

Through direct introductions and curated investment opportunities sourced from our corporate and innovation banks, we give our clients a structurally advantaged position at the forefront of growth and innovation, allowing them not just to see the future, but to actively participate in creating it.

HSBC Access

HSBC Access is your gateway to a curated global network of leaders, companies and industries shaping what's next

Exclusive opportunities, curated for you

Privileged access to a world of unique direct investment opportunities and global visionaries, carefully curated to meet your priorities.

Real-economy insights and sector expertise that cuts through

Proprietary insights and analysis leveraging proximity to real-economy expertise, bringing greater clarity and content to evolving investment landscapes.

The power and advantage of the HSBC group ecosystem

Transforming our unique strengths as a globally connected corporate and innovation bank into a dynamic ecosystem of deals, insights and connections.

Exclusive opportunities, curated for you

As one of our most sophisticated private investors, we introduce you to a world of opportunities that have been carefully curated to suit your investment needs.

This is genuine access to proprietary deal flow and differentiated networks generated by the institutional arms of HSBC.

By opening this gateway, we provide more than just exposure to exciting investments. We offer you a distinct and structurally advantaged position in the market.

Proprietary Deal Flow

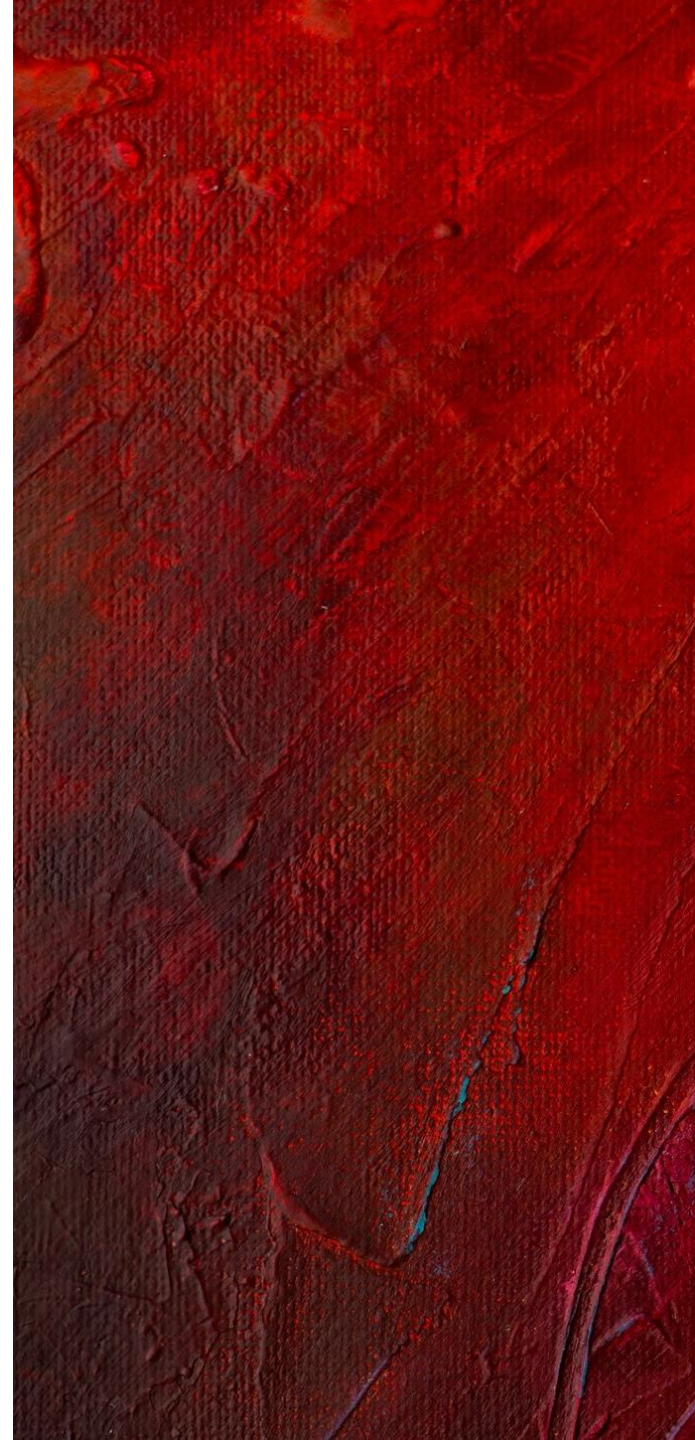

Direct access to private investment opportunities sourced from our corporate and innovation banks, including equity and private credit deals that are not offered publicly.

Bespoke Client Engagement

Invitation-only events designed to connect a select group of clients with innovators and corporate leaders.

A Connected Global Network and Ecosystem

Introductions to founders, industry operators, and co-investors from across HSBC's global ecosystem, tailored to your strategic priorities.

Real-economy insights and sector expertise that cuts through

HSBC Access is underpinned by unique proximity and real economy expertise that extends far beyond standard market insight.

Positioned across the world's key economic corridors, our investment specialists apply their deep sector access and intelligence to curate relevant insights, thematic opportunities and strategic connectivity focused on some of the most important global themes.

With international teams operating at the centre of commerce, innovation and capital flows, we possess a "front-row seat" to the real economy, enabling us to provide you with a differentiated outlook and forward-looking commentary that empowers clients to navigate emerging trends and opportunities with greater clarity.

Deep Sector Expertise

Specialised knowledge within our Innovation Banking teams spanning Climate Tech, FinTech, Life Sciences, Healthcare, Enterprise Software, and more.

Global Thought Leadership

We leverage insights from the world's leading corporate and innovation networks to provide unique commentary and analysis on market trends, emerging industries, and global trade flows.

Dedicated Specialist Teams

The proposition is delivered by the UHNW Solutions Group (USG), a team of specialists with deep expertise in structuring and executing cross-bank solutions for our most sophisticated clients.

The power and advantage of the HSBC group ecosystem

HSBC Access is powered by the full scale and connectivity of the entire HSBC Group.

Our 'One Bank' approach turns our global network into a dynamic ecosystem that generates the right opportunities at the right times.

This ecosystem connects the world's established trade corridors with its emerging innovation hubs, providing a constant source of unique deals, proprietary insights, and valuable connections.

For our clients, this means we don't just see opportunities, we help create them.

CIB, Trade & Global Connectivity

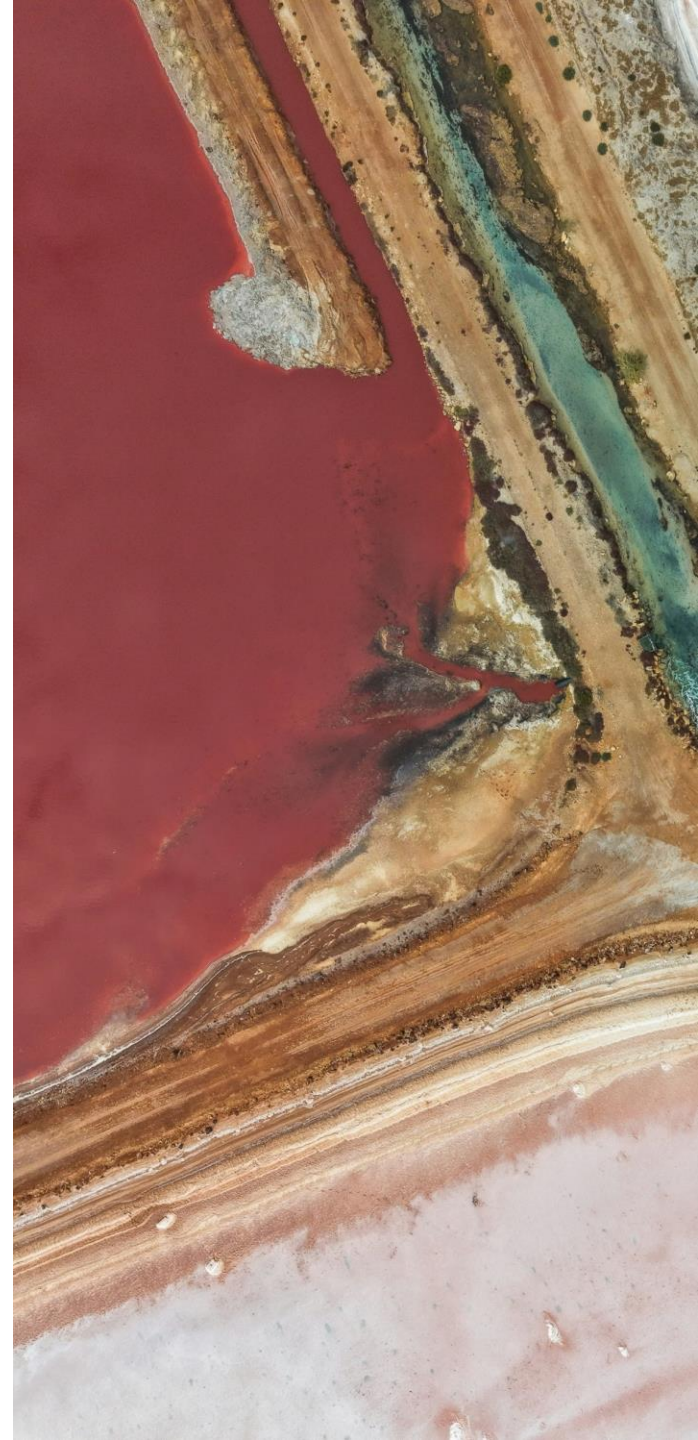

As the World's Best Trade Finance Bank, we provide access to 90% of global trade flows, connecting our clients to a vast network of large corporates and public sector entities.

Global Innovation Banking Network

Our dedicated innovation teams are strategically located in key hubs worldwide, providing deep connectivity to the venture capital ecosystem and early-stage companies from pre-seed to post-IPO.

A Leading Asia and East-West Franchise

Our extensive global presence and local expertise across Asia, Europe, the Middle East, the Americas and UK – give our clients unique access and insights into the world's fastest-growing markets.
